NORTHERN ILLINOIS ALL-CENTURY TEAM

24 JIM BRADLEY

There was never any argument about Jim Bradley's basketball talent. The 6-foot-10, 221-pounder was "The Franchise" in two magical seasons when Northern Illinois won 38 of 50 games and basked in the national limelight.

One of four unanimous selections on the NIU All-Century Team, that famous No. 24 is also the Player of the Century. "He's a complete basketball player," said Huskie coach Tom Jorgensen in 1971. "He does for us what Bill Walton does for UCLA." In retrospect, Jim Bradley did a lot more—considering the history of the two programs.

Any player comparisons at Northern Illinois must start with Bradley. The cornerstone of Jorgy's 21-4 Hall of Fame quintet in 1971-72, Bradley garnered All-America honors and helped the Huskies smash 52 school records that winter. The hot topic on campus was not Vietnam, The Establishment, or Richard Nixon. It was Huskie basketball.

Obviously, Bradley could do the typical big man things—score and rebound. Peruse the record section. What people did not realize is that No. 24 was one of the college game's first big guards. "Jim Bradley could do it all," said Northern Illinois sports information director emeritus Bud Nangle whose connection to the program dates back to 1938. "Hit 40-footers, dribble behind his back or through his legs, handle the ball against the press, lead the break, and pass better than someone a foot shorter."

Recruited by over 300 schools, Bradley was a Blue Chipper—particularly after leading East Chicago (IN) Roosevelt to a 28-0 season and the 1970 Indiana High School Association championship in 1970. The late, legendary Tony Hinkle, who had witnessed every Indiana state tournament since 1913, put Bradley on his 10-man state "Dream Team" with John Wooden, Oscar Robertson, and George McGinnis. As a prep senior, Bradley not only led the Roughriders in scoring and rebounding, but assists as well.

Due to NCAA sanctions and academic problems in 1973-74, Bradley bypassed his senior year, went in the special ABA undergraduate draft, and found himself playing with Artis Gilmore, Dan Issel, and Louis Dampier on the Kentucky Colonels. The next year, Kentucky won the ABA championship.

"I think Jim Bradley was as talented a player as I ever saw," said Issel. "I mean, talent-wise, I would put him in the class of the Julius Ervings and David Thompsons of this world." Said Gilmore in 1982: "He was a super, super talented player." Added McGinnis in 1974: "On a given night, Bradley can be better than me. He can be better than Julius Erving."

Potential needs to be realized. Bradley's lack of personal discipline sent him on an odyssey through the ABA, CBA, France, and back to the NBA Portland Trailblazers.

On February 20, 1982, his dead body was found in an alley in Portland. The case is still unsolved. Two years earlier, one of Bradley's ex-Northern Illinois teammates, Billy "The Kid" Harris, was torching the opposition in the Chicago Summer League and eliciting comparisons from the crowd. "There were a couple of kids seated behind us," recalled Huskie Sports Information Director Emeritus Mike Korcek, "and I heard one of them say, 'Billy's cool, but he's not the best. Jim Bradley was the best. He was the first 'Magic.""

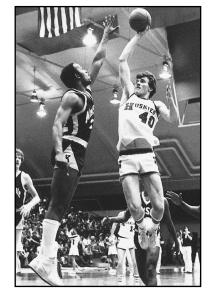

Since the inception of the Mid-American Conference in 1946, few can match Northern Illinois postman Allen Rayhorn, his league credentials, or his work ethic.

"Allen didn't come in here with any great fanfare," said Huskie coach John McDougal, "but he established himself as one of the premier players in the history of Northern and the MAC."

The league's initial Freshman of the Year, one of only 12 Mid-Am 1,000-point, 1,000rebound career performers, three-time first-team All-MAC, thrice All-MAC Tournament, and MAC Post-Season Tournament MVP in 1982 when No. 40 led Northern Illinois to its first Division I NCAA Tournament appearance. Three-time team Most Valuable Player and the school's first soph MVP since Jim Bradley. At one time, "Horn" ranked as the No. 1 career scorer in the MAC and for the Huskies with his 1,874 points. He was voted the school's Player of the Decade (1980s).

2006-07 NIU MEN'S BASKETBALL

At 6-foot-9 and 202 pounds, Rayhorn ruled the paint. His signature shot was an unblockable, one-hand jumper. By his sophomore year, double and triple teams were standard.

Rayhorn's career-high (37 points vs. Toledo in 1980-81) came against a rare manto-man defense. He blocked a school-record 199 shots, dunked on DePaul All-America Mark Aguirre, and graduated with 16 NIU records.

"I don't know that Rayhorn is stoppable," said Bowling Green State coach John Weinert. Added Kansas State forward Les Craft after the NCAA game: "He (Rayhorn) never lets up. There's nobody in the Big Eight that plays that hard." Praised Northwestern coach Rich Falk: "Nobody works harder than Rayhorn."

Named to the Associated Press honorable mention All-America squad as a senior, Rayhorn was drafted in the seventh round by the NBA Seattle Supersonics and lasted until the final cut. Breaking into a frontcourt that featured all-stars such as Jack Sikma and Lonnie Shelton was tough. "Horn" spent a year in the CBA before going back to his family farm in Rock City.

The best testimony to his blue collar attitude? Probably no Northern Illinois player drew more fouls—considering his schoolrecord 568 free throws and 730 attempts. For someone who carried 16.1 ppg. and 9.4 rbpg. numbers for his 115-game collegiate career, No. 40 rarely forced shots and had an economy to his game (averaging only 10.1 shots pg.). Which was always the Rayhorn bottom line: Low key, but high profile.

NORTHERN ILLINOIS ALL-CENTURY TEAM

33 KENNY BATTLE

From his major-college debut and game-high 22 points vs. nationally-ranked DePaul on WGN-TV November 24, 1984, Northern Illinois "slamboyant" forward Kenny Battle redefined "high profile."

News spread instantly in the mid-1980s cable TV generation. Battle cries spread like wildfire. "He's (Battle) a dunking machine-Mr. Excitement," screamed ESPN's Dick Vitale. "What an athlete," said Marquette coach Rick Majerus. "I mean he's the best athlete I've seen since Darrell Griffth. That Battle is as good a freshman as I've seen. Joey Meyer will tell you the same thing." Added Meyer: "To my way of thinking, he's the best freshman I've seen this year." Offered Northwestern's Rich Falk: "Battle's an awesome freshman. He does things you can't coach.'

The 6-foot-6, 200-pound Battle would eventually lead all NCAA freshmen in scoring with a 20.1 ppg. average, set the school and Mid-American Conference freshman single-season point record (544), make MAC Frosh of the Year, put his Huskie No. 33 jersey in the College Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass., and find himself on at least 11 All-America teams that winter. The dunk-amania fun continued in 1985-86 as Evans Field

House drew a record 65,237 fans who now had their own Doctor J or Michael Jordan wearing No. 33. Battle became the youngest player in NIU and MAC history to reach 1,000 career points (his 50th game as a soph) and earned the "King of the 360s" tag from Brent Musburger upon winning the "Best Dunker in the Country" award from CBS. "Game or practice, when he puts on that uniform, Kenny Battle comes to play," said Northern Illinois boss John McDougal in 1985. "I don't know of anyone who outworks him. I'll tell you this. If he wants to go to the basket, I don't know of too many people who could stop him."

A one-man Phi Slamma Jamma with an NIU-record 93 stuffs in 54 games, Battle executed four 360-degree whirling-dervish stuffs in his Huskie days.

After transferring to Illinois, Battle starred for the "Flyin' Illini" Final Four club in 1988-89 and would be a first-round NBA draft pick. As a rookie, he competed in the Slam-Dunk Contest against Dominique Wilkins, Scottie Pippen, Rex Chapman, Kenny Smith, Shawn Kemp, and Kenny Walker. No. 33. The stuff of Huskie legend.

In retrospect, where do you start examining T. J. Lux's impact on Northern Illinois University men's basketball? After all, No. 35 did major surgery on the Huskie Record Book.

No. 1 in career scoring and No. 1 in career rebounding. If Lux had spent his entire career in the Mid-American Conference, his 1,996 career points and 1,110 career rebounds would have placed him into an elite group that featured Ron Harper, Gary Trent, Allen Rayhorn, Nate Thurmond, Wayne Embry, etc. On that 94-foot by 50-foot stage, that's elite company.

By any perspective, Lux upped the ante. No one in the 100-year basketball history of his alma mater had (1) scored at least 400 points in four different seasons, (2) made first-team all-conference four times or (3) produced 59 career point-rebound "double doubles.

Since 1946, only three people have won three Northern Illinois team MVP awards-Hall of Famers Rayhorn (1980-82), Larry Gentry (1958-60), and Lux.

More suited for forward than the post. Lux played center in college, mostly out of necessity. A deft big man with a soft shooting touch (Lux beat Western Michigan, 55-52, with a 36-footer at the buzzer as a sophomore), he learned the nuances of major-college post play. Utilizing the drop step, reverse pivot, and the spin move, the three-time Northern Illinois team captain could deliver a variety of shots inside. His blue collar attitude, a high IQ, and long wingspan didn't hurt either. Rebounding? Lux had that nose for the ball and old-fashioned work ethic.

So what really separated Lux from his collegiate peers then? Academics. His "double double" carried into the classroom. During his final Northern Illinois campaign, Lux carried a 3.85 cumulative gpa on a 4.00 scale as a graduate student in institutional curriculum

academic honors followed. The prestigious NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship The Playboy Anson Mount Scholar-Athlete Award. The CoSIDA Academic All-America of the Year in men's basketball. First-Team Academic All-America. An incredible Academic All-America three-peatan accomplishment done only 42 times in men's basketball since 1967. The distinguished three-time Academic All-America fraternity includes Bill Walton and Jamaal Wilkes of UCLA, Mike Gminski of Duke, Tom McMillen of Maryland, Ronnie Perry of Holy Cross, Rick Yunkus of George Tech, Dennis Awtrey of Santa Clara.

NORTHERN ILLINOIS ALL CENTURY TEAM44 PAUL34 MATT44 DONNELLDAWKINSHICKSTHOMAS

That handmade sign in jam-packed Evans Field House student section read: "Score one for me, Doctor D."

Usually it was more like 30. Eight times his senior year, "The Doctor" broke the 30point barrier en route to the Mid-American Conference scoring title and finishing No. 5 nationally at 26.7 ppg. That's the way that Northern Illinois forward Paul "The Doctor" Dawkins operated in the late 1970s.

Unbeatable off his sweet spot on the baseline. Deadly off the dribble and the drive. At 6-foot-5 and 190 pounds, Dawkins was equally tough inside or outside. The combination was difficult to defend.

Thanks to that rapid-fire southpaw stroke from 18-to-23 feet, No. 44 would make First-Team All-MAC, win Mid-Am Player of the Year in 1978-79 and get drafted by the Utah Jazz.

"Without a doubt, he is the smoothest operator l've ever been associated with," John McDougal said.

HUSHIES

Before Karl Malone came along, Dawkins held the Jazz scoring record for a half (50 points vs. Portland in 1980-81). After a year and a half in Utah, Dr. D played in Alaska and Turkey (1981-90).

"The Doctor" finished his Huskie career with seven school records. His 47-point house call at Western Michigan on Feb. 28, 1979, remains the best single-game Northern Illinois individual point production during its Division I tenure. In 1998, Dawkins topped all scorers with 22 points in the MAC Legends Game at Toledo.

The Great Matt Hicks might have been listed at only 6-foot-4, but the Northern Illinois Hall of Fame forward was a giant in the mid-1970s. In 1976-77, No. 34 led coach John McDougal's Huskies on a memorable Mid-American Conference title run. Hicks became the first player in the history of the MAC to repeat as league scoring and rebounding kingpin (25.0 ppg. and 12.8 rbpg. in 1975-76 and 25.3 ppg. and 13.0 rbpg. in 1976-77). Revered for his assortment of spectacular dunks, Hicks was canonized by the rabid NIU students as St. Matthew. The NCAA's legalization of the dunk and his final season coincided in 1976-77.

"Every time Matt touches the ball, people stand up," said John McDougal. "If he's not the best around he's the most exciting." His hardwood skills and popularity attracted the largest write-in vote total (389,394) in the history of the national Pizza

Hut All-Star Game in Las Vegas where Hicks wound up second behind UCLA's Marques Johnson in the slam-dunk contest.

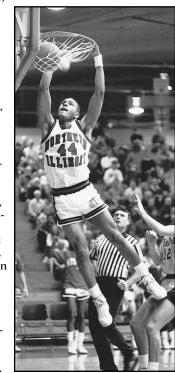

"If ever a basketball shot was made for man and man was made for the shot," wrote Bob Pille of the Chicago Sun-Times, "it is the combination of the dunk and Matt Hicks."

The MAC Player of the Year executed two unforgettable stuffs vs. Wisconsin—the first on a baseline drive over three defenders and the second the famous spread-eagle shot a decade before that MJ fellow. Drafted by the NBA San Antonio Spurs, Hicks played eight years in Europe.

"You can compare him to Charles Barkley," said Northern Iowa center Jason Reese. "(Thomas) plays twice as big as he is."

Added Northern Illinois coach Jim Molinari: "I'll take him at 6-4 over anybody 6-8. No one fights harder than Donnell. He's a warrior."

A first-round pick of the WBL Youngstown Pride, "D-Train" finished with 1,853 career points and 984 rebounds at Northern Illinois. Named the Chevrolet Player of the Game with a game-high 23 points and 12 rebounds vs. 20th-ranked St. John's in the NCAA Tournament, Thomas captained the winningest Huskie quintet in history (25-6 in 1990-91).

DeKalb, III. --- Where was ESPN Classic for this one? Northern Illinois University's Sixth Annual Men's Basketball Alumni Game was an exciting, fun, and thrill-packed exhibition of skill for 40 minutes.

2006-07 NIU MEN'S BASKETBALL

For the record, the Cardinal alums prevailed, 101-99, Saturday (February 4) morning at the Convocation Center on a fallaway three-point jump shot by guard Walter Thompson th 5.7 seconds left to play.

Ironically, the guy who had the last word, Thompson, did not appear in the Alumni Game program roster since he was the last Huskie alumni to RSVP late Friday night. The 5-foot-10, 165-pound guard responded with 11 points, three rebounds, one assist, and one steal for coach Bill Finucane's Cardinal squad.

Once again, the annual Northern Illinois Alumni Game featured it all: Ten twin-digit scorers, two "old-timers" with point-rebound "double-doubles", 24 three-pointers (12 by each club), 200 combined points (for the second year in a row), two dunks, and several gritty comebacks.

"It was truly a great Alumni Game," said Black Alumni Team forward Tori Hughes who collected one of those impressive "doubledoubles" with 15 points and 12 rebounds. "We're still highly competitive guys. It was fun."

Cardinal guard and current Huskie assistant coach Donald Whiteside earned the spotlight as the Alumni Game Most Valuable Performer. The 5-foot-10, 150-pound NIU Athletics Hall of Famer and All-Century performer led all the alums with 28 points on 10-of-16 shooting from the floor (7-of-11 from behind the three-point arc) and 1-of-2 at the foul line, four assists, two steals, and two rebounds. Whiteside's seven treys tied his own Alumni game record (seven in 2002).

"We wanted to win," said Cardinal team guard Andre Williams who posted the other "double double" with 21 points and 12 rebounds, plus four steals and three assists. "Everybody on the floor wanted to win. It was a fun, competitive game. It was great to be part of it."

2006 NIU ALUMNI GAME

Head coach Mike Korcek's Black unit sprinted to early 10-2 and 15-5 leads behind swingman Brad Waller and guard Jay Bates. Bates' three-pointer put the Black alums ahead, 15-5, at the 15:59 mark. Naturally, the Cardinals battled back, going on a 21-11 run in the next 5:57, and tying the proceedings at 26 on Williams' first stuff shot.

Northern Illinois' Black regrouped and mounted two nine-point advantages (41-32 and 44-35). Then the Cardinal alumni finished the first half with a 15-4 flury over the final 4:49. A Rey Jones lay-up at the buzzer put NIU Cardinal ahead at half, 50-48. Black guard "Argo Al" Sewasciuk topped all first-half scorers with 17 points and didn't miss a shot (6-of-6 from the field and 5-of-5 from behind the arc) and Whiteside countered with 16 points.

NIU Cardinal dominated the early stages of the second stanza, eventually building a pair of 15-point leads (74-59 and 76-61) before the Black team's late comeback. Leading by an 11-point margin at 91-80, the winners got outscored 19-8, in the last 6:28. Guard Randy Tucker spearheaded the late Black charge with six points, including five by Bates, two by Hughes, and two by Waller. An old-fashioned three-point play on a driving lay-up and free throw by Bates pushed the Black squad back into the lead at 96-95 with 2:27 left.

Hughes upped the advantage to 97-95 with a foul shot before Williams deadlocked the game on a lay-up. Black went ahead again, 99-97, on a lay-in by Bates with 1:47 remaining. Swingman Mike Hidden tallied his 13th and final point on a free throw and pulled the Cardinal team within one, 99-98, before Thompson did his heroics.

Scoring-wise, Jones contributed 16 points to the Cardinal cause. Bates (game-record 34 points in 2004 and 29 in 2005) continued his prolific scoring in NIU Alumni Games with 26 markers on 11-of-18 shots from the floor (2of-4 from treyland) and 2-of-3 from the line.

Tucker (20), Sewasiuk (17), and Waller (15) reached twin-digits for the Black quintet.

The Huskie hardwood alums --- approximately 50 in number---were recognized at halftime of the NIU-Western Michigan game in the afternoon---highlighted by appearances from two Northern Illinois National Basketball Association veterans, Hall of Famers and All-Century picks Paul "Doctor D" Dawkins (Utah Jazz in 1979-81) and Bobby Wood (Sheboygan Redskins in 1949-50).

HUSKIE ALL-AMERICANS

Jim Bradley, F-C, 1971-72, 1972-73

Jim Bradley was simply before his time. A small forward in a center's body. Yes, the dynamic Bradley could do it all, run, pass, shoot and defend. One of just four unanimous all-century selections at NIU, Bradley earned All-America recognition during his sophomore and junior seasons including the 1971-72 season in which he led Northern Illinois to a 21-4 overall record and an appearance in the Associated Press Top 20 rankings. Ranked among the school's top 20 career scorers with 1,134 tallies in just two seasons, Bradley averaged a remarkable 23.1 points over his two seasons and owns the top two rebounding seasons in school history, 426 boards in 1972-73 and 398 in 1971-72. His 16.8 rebounds a game over his career is also tops in school lore. For his efforts, Bradley earned third team All-America recognition from Basketball Weekly and Honorable Mention honors from the UPI as a junior (1972-73) and Fourth Team honors from Basketball News and Honorable Mention honors from the Sporting News in 1971-72.

Billy Harris, G, 1972-73

A dynamic perimeter performer who ranks among NIU leaders in points (1,331) including a remarkable 603 tallies during the 1972-73 season. Harris, teaming with fellow All-American Jim Bradley, led NIU on a tear during the 1971-72 season, guiding the Huskies to a 21-4 overall record including a dominant 85-71 win over then No. 5 Indiana and head coach Bob Knight in Evans Fieldhouse. A First Team All-Midwestern Conference selection during that 1971-72 season, Harris poured in 17.8 points a game and then followed that up with an unbelievable 24.1 point scoring norm as a senior (1972-73). Also a member of the NIU All-Century team, Harris earned Honorable Mention honors from Basketball Weekly during that senior season, becoming the second Huskie All-America award winner in school lore.

Matt Hicks, F, 1975-76, 1976-77

One of the most decorated Huskies, Matt Hicks was a two-time All-America selection over his illustrious Northern Illinois career in which he won Mid-American Conference Player of the Year honors in 1976-77 and was an all-league honoree in 1975-76. The first player in MAC history to lead the league in scoring and rebounding for two consecutive seasons, "The Great" Matt Hicks was a man among boys in the post despite standing just 6-foot-4 in stature. A member of the Huskie All-Century Team, Hicks was a two-time Honorable Mention All-America choice by the Associated Press (1975-77) and earned Special Mention consideration from the Sporting News in 1975-77 and Converse in 1976-77. Seventh in school history with 1,513 points, Hicks is also among the school's leading rebounders.

 Paul Dawkins, F, 1978-79

Very few could light up the Chick Evans Field House scoreboard like "Doctor D". Paul Dawkins earned Special Mention All-America recognition from the Sporting News in 1978-79 after finishing No. 5 nationally in scoring with an incredible 26.7 ppg. scoring norm. A future draftee by the Utah Jazz, Dawkins ripped the nets for 30 points a remarkable eight times during his senior season in which he scored a school record 695 points. One of those 30+-point games, a 47-point outburst at Western Michigan (2-28-79) ranks third in single-game scoring at NIU. A Northern Illinois All-Century team member, Dawkins was a three time All-Mid-American Conference pick, earning First Team honors during his junior and senior campaigns.

Allen Rayhorn, C, 1981-82

The catalyst for Northern Illinois' first trip to the NCAA Tournament, Allen Rayhorn was known more for his methodical, hard-nosed style of play than his flair. One of just 10 1,000-point, 1,000-rebound performers in Mid-American Conference history, Rayhorn was a "rock" for John McDougal's squads of the early 1980's. Selected to the MAC First Team three times during his career, Rayhorn also earned All-MAC Tournament honors each of those years and was the MAC Postseason Tournament MVP in 1982 after leading NIU to the "Big Dance". The NIU Player of the Decade (1980's), Rayhorn is also the school record holder with 199 career blocked shots. A draft pick of the Seattle Supersonics following his collegiate playing days, Rayhorn set 16 school records during his time in DeKalb and was a unanimous selection to the NIU All-Century squad.

Tim Dillon, F-C, 1982-83, 1983-84

A two-time Honorable Mention All-America selection by the Associated Press, Tim "The Marshal" Dillon was a dominant inside force for Northern Illinois during his four seasons (1980-84) as a hoops letterwinner. NIU's first Academic All-American, Dillon twice earned First Team All-MAC honors on the hardwood and completed his career as a first team All-District Four pick as a senior after averaging 21.2 points to lead the Mid-American Conference.

Also a Special Mention pick by the Sporting News, Dillon was named to the NIU All-Century team after helping the Huskies to the 1980-81 regular-season crown as a true freshman. Fourth in career field goals (650), Dillon finished his NIU tenure sixth in career scoring (1,559) including 573 points as a senior, the sixth highest single-season point total in school lore.

Kenny Battle, F, 1984-85, 1985-86

His Northern Illinois tenure lasted just two seasons, but the high-flying, "slamboyant" Kenny Battle made the most of those two winters in DeKalb. Named a Sporting News Honorable Mention All-American as a freshman and sophomore, Battle led all NCAA freshmen in scoring average (20.1) in 1984-85 and set the school and Mid-American Conference freshman scoring record with 544 points. The youngest player in the MAC to reach 1,000 career points, Battle was a one-man wrecking crew for the Huskies, turning in a school record 93 dunks in his 54 career games. Battle finished his collegiate career at the University of Illinois, leading the 1988-89 "Flyin' Illini" to the Final Four in Seattle, WA, before becoming a first round pick of the Detroit Pistons.
